The committee then adopted a report in favor of the credit proposed by the Government for the expedition. The reinforcement for Tonquin includes three batteries of mountain artillery! New Jersey Oll Tanks Struck By Lightning.

The Fire Departments Powerless-Several Lives Lost-Damage Will Reach Into the Millions.

NEW YORK, May 10 .- During the electrical storm which took place this morning a flash of lightning struck one of the storage tanks of the Standard Oil Compuny's works at Bayonne, N. J. It is supposed that several lighters which were used by the company for transportation purposes and which were anchored near the shore were also burned. The damage is roughly estimated at $1,500,000. The works, however, are so located that the loss may amount to much less or may reach $4,000,000 or $5,000,000.

The fire is now enting its way across back of the New Jersey Central towards ten largo tanks, said to hold 150,000 barrels of oil. Great danger to shipping is anticipated from the change in the wind, which might cause the burning oil to escape to the waters in the hay, earrying destruction to vessels in the neighborhood.

Two watchmen employed in the yard escaped injury, but immediately after the fice broke out a crowd of men and boys was seen in among the tanks, and it could not be ascertained whether all escaped or JERSEV CITY, 11:30 A. M .- The oil fire is still raying. The Eagle refinery is in danger. It the winds continue sontheast the remaining buildings may be saved. Six lives have been last.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 10-1 P. M .-The works of the Standard Oil Company, at Communipaw, the most extensive in this country, are on tire, and a' out onehalf the property is now destroyed.

The fire started during a severe storm this morning. One of the large tanks near the shore was struck and exploded by ligarning. The burning cit poured out like an augry river and flowed down the avenue between rows of enormous tanks toward the river.

In a short time the flames communicated with three linge tanks, and they explored simultaneously with terrible force. Fragments of irm were tended a distance of half a mire, and burning oil was scattered in all directions.

The entire fire department was summoned, but their services were almost useless, as the harning stream of oil poured through the yard firing tank after tank on the east side and licking up the buildings. The storehouse, a solid structure where barreled oil was kept, was attacked by the finnes and succumbed. An engine-house wem next and oil and water-pump honses, sunken tanks and muchine shops quickly followed, and the whole easterly side of the works was a seetling mass of flames.

STILL ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

JERSEY CITY, May 1t) .- The shaft of lightning of imequaled brilliancy and brightness that struck the first tank was seen by firemen of Engine No. 10, in Halliday street. Jersey City, a mile away, and the engine nt once started for the seene. It was soon discovered to be useless work to play upon the flames, and all efforts were directed to prevent them from spreading.

This was partially successful until nearly 5 o'elock, when tank No. 7 exploded with a terrific report, and the blazing oil sprend with lightning rapidity. Chief Ferrier and a number of men were within ten yards of this tank when it exploded, and were saved almost by a miracte.

Dropping the hose, which was soon hurned to ashes, they fled for their lives, When they mustered together at a safe distance six of their number were found miss-

The smoke was so dense that it was impossible to tell which way one was going, and it is thought that the unfortunate men ran down to the river and were lost. Their names are: John Herbert, Superintendent; Joseph Jenkins, foreman cooper; George Davis, engineer; Henry Kegler, laborer; Dick Conklin, laborer; William Curry boller-maker.

Waves of flaming oil had rolled in upon the engine house, carpenter shops, machine shops, boiler and pump room, two ware-houses, cooper shops and blacksmith shops, and they were a heap of ruins in an hour. Tank after tank was caught by the flames until seven out of twenty-six on the ground were blazing. The tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad also caught fire and several rolling tanks on the rails were only saved by having earth piled on top of them.

The buy was a sheet of flaming oil, and the long trestle bridge of railway, about a quarter of a mile long, running from the works to Black Tom's Island, was also burned down to the water's edge. At the boarding house of the Eagle Refinery, close by, the scene was painful in the extreme. Newly made widows congregated in one of the rooms, hope and despair alternating in their distracted minds, and lamenting the terrible fate of the gloved ones from whom they had parted but a few hours before. No bodies have been found, for the heat renders a close approach to the ruins impossible. The burning works extend, with the Engle refinery, about three-quarters of a mile along the bay and about a quarter of a mile inland. The buildings that have been destroyed were situated in the midst of tanks. The wind is southeast, blowing off the sea, and therefore there is no danger of other tanks exploding. Had the wind been northerly, the boarding house and Eagle works would certainly have perished also.

RULED BY VIGILANTES.

Dodge City, Kan., in the Hands of a Mob.

Sr. Louis, May 10 .- A Post-Diepatch special from Kansus City says that for the past ten days a remarkably startling state of affairs has existed at Dodge Chy, Kan., and all mention thereof has been kept quiet. Several prominent Kansas t'ity atturneys left to-day for Topeka to petition Bevernor Glick to place the town under martial law. The difficulty is the culmination of a long-standing tend between two elements of that place. Podge Pity has long enjoyed the reputation of being a hard place. It is one of the few points in Kansas where saloons are run openly, and gambling is legitimatized. It is the healquarters of the cowboys and cattle men of that vicinity, Before the last city election the Mayor was a man named Webster, proprietor of a live, half saloon and half gambling house and variety ball, ite was a representative of the lower element of the sporting fraternity. The head of the other faction was W. II. Harris. This element was quieter, but there was a bitter feeling between the two. At the election for Mayor, Harris beaten, and Degne, Webster's candidate elected. Since thea it has been conceded that llarris will be driven out. About ten days ago a man named Short, who is a partisan of Harris and a police officer, land a shooting attray, but neither one was hurt. Short was thrown into jail, although the evidence showed that he was fired at first, Later the gamblers were arrested and | jailed. That night a vigilance committee was armed, with Tom Nixon, proprietor of one of the hardest dance houses in the West, at its head. The crowd repaired to the jail, and notified the prisoners that they must leave town the next morning. Meantime the vigilanets took possession of the town. Correspondents of nowspapers were notified that they must not send telegrams. A body of armed men watched the arrival of each train to see that there was no interference. A lawyer from Larned, seut for by one of the prisoners, was met by a vigilante, who leveled a gun at his head and told him not to stop. The next morning the five gamblers were put on a westward bound train and Short left for Kansas City, where he is now. Dodge City is practically in t : hands of vigilantes, and the situation is the more serious from the fact that the Mayor is acting with them. It was he who notified the prisoners that they must go. The trains are still watched and armed men guard the town, while a list of others who will be ordered out has been prepared. Dodge is in the hands of desperadoes, and the lives and property of citizens are not safe. Serlous trouble is apprehended, Harring was severely injured, horses on the street bolow were scalded, and the engines badly sunshed.

Thompson Murder Trial.

Mrs. Phil. Thompson Tells What She Knows of Miss Buckner.

It Will Be a Famous Trial-A Great Array of Counsel and an Eucrgetic Prosecution Probable.

HARRODSaure, KY., May 10 .- Sheriff Davis Bisselt was ordered by the court to summon 125 jurymen, and he and his deputies were kept busy till court assembled yesterday morning, and selected men from all parts of the county. At the outset counsel for the prosecution had raised the question of bail, wanting the accused to be remanded to jail, denying the right of Judge Hardin to allow bail for such an offense in the first place, and bitterly opposed Thompson's standing on bail during the trial. This interesting point, after argument by counsel, was overruled, and the defendant was allowed to stand upon his bond.

It is evident that this will be a famous trial. Little Phil, the accused, sits in the midst of his counsel, Senator Voorhees, of Indiana; Gen. Dan Lindsay of Frankfort; Congressman Joe C. S. Blackburn, his bosom friend; Col. R. P. Jacobs, of danville, Ky., and Capt. C. B. Thompson, his father; John B. Thompson, his brother, and T. C. Bell and Judge Jno. G. Kyle, of Harrodsburg, Ky.

On the other side sits "Crit" Davis. the noted turfman, brother of deceased, and Colonel R. T. Latham and Captain Wm. Campbell, brothers-in-law of the late Wulter Il. Davis, who are in close consultation with their attorneys; Lieutenant Governor Contrill, 11on. George W. Denney, lute Commonwealth's Attorney in the Boyle and Garrard Districts; Speaker Owens, of Georgetown; Morton, of Lexington, and E. 11. Gaither are assisting Commonwealth's Attorney, Finley Shuck, of Lebanou.

Mrs. Thompson stated, in snostance to a reporter, "that she preferred not to add to what she had already said for publication, lest she might say something that would injure Phil. She said sno had been greatly abused and mistreated and slandered; that had her husband only met and listened to her the trouble could have been avoided; that she could ensity have satisfied him of her innocence, and, of the false reports concerning Davis and herself, She say that her husband was misled and deceived by Miss Jessie Buckner and Mr. Roth, proprietor of the St. Clair Hotel, in Cincinnati, and the killing of Davis was the execution of a wicked plot of Miss Buckner's; that if "Plail had only listened to my plending letters for a consultation (not that she intended to endeavor to persnade him to return to her as his wife), but just simply to give her an opportunity of establishing her entire innocence, Davis would not have fallen by his hands, but rather the character of Miss Buckner would have appeared to him in its true light." Mrs. Thompson intimates that she knows a great deal that would go far toward destroying the evidence of Miss Buckner, but forbears to talk about it, for the reason above stated, further than saying that for her reputation in Cincinnati was not of the most enviable kind, for she had been turned om of several horels, under circumstances not flattering; and that while here in Harrodsburg last January or February, on a visit, the proprietor of the St. Clair, Mr. Roth, wrote her that when she returned to t'incimniti she moist look for another boarding house, i , in! began yesterday.

THE FINAL DROP.

A Bold Young Outlaw Hung at Pittsburg.

Pirrsurne, May 10,-The city has been all excitement this morning, this being the day set for the hanging of Ward McConkey, a young outlaw, for a terrible crime committed two years and a half ugo. Fourteen miles from l'ittsburg is located the town of McKeesport. During the winter of 1880 robberies were of so frequent occurrence in McK esport that it was evident that they were the work of an organized gang. One of the principal sufferers was George McCture, a general hardware denler, and after several raids on his place of business he determined to watch for the targlars and endeavor to capture them. The night following the day on which this resolution was made his place of business was again entered and several revolvers and other articles taken. Mct'lure, accompanied by several citizens, followed the robbers, who were five in number, to Dead Man's Hollow, a lenely place about three mifes from Mckeesport. Here they made a stand, and Mct'lure, who was in a lyanco of the pursuing party, was shot and killed. One other person was wounded, and the robbers made their escape. They were recognized ss Ward McConkey, "Nig" Lee, "Reddy" Baskins, ———— Leslie, and "Shorty" Collins, young men who had earned an intenviable reputation by previous unlawful acts. A vigorous search was made for them by the county authorities, but all cluded capture save McConkey, who was identified a year and a linif ago, while serving a term in one of the New York prisons for some petty offense, lie was one of the youngest men ever hung in this State. His age is not exac ly known, but it was not over twenty years. At 9 a. m. people commenced to collect about the juil yard, where the execution took place. The court-house was closed last night and guards were at every entranee. The scallold was hidden from viow. McConkey slept well from midnight until daybreak this morning, and reiterated his desire that the doctors do not get hold of his budy. The execution took place at 11:30 a. m.

On the scatfold he was cool and smiled at the executioners. He said he was hung because he looked like the man who had killed McChire. After the white cap was on his head he called out in a lond voice: "Good-hy, all you murderers," when the drop fell, and he died almost instantly.

ENGLAND.

The R. straints Imposed by Seciety on Affianced Parties.

From the New York Morning Journal. Engaged young ladies are the prescribed wall flowers of society. The vast majority of them are pretty, or they would not be engaged; but how many of them wear out their beauty in the vain hope that engagement will mean marriage, and that marriage means happiness. Every girl who goes to balls and parties, to the opera and race meetings, to Saratoga, or on one of the fashionable steamers to Europe, can tell you that should one of these doomed ones attract the attention of the other sex sufficiently to provoke an inquiry as to her name and station, it answer: "That's Miss So-and-so. She's engaged!" is enough to kill all interest in her to Third and Sution streets,

As for the engaged one, if she be a faithful sweetheart, she is bound to consider herself as somebody labeled and ticketed, and hid hy for future use. Knowing the irrational jealousy of man, she devotes all her thoughts to appearing above the suspicion of flirtation-or even above the suspicion of taking the remotest interest in any mule human being other than he who has laid a first and second mortgage on her, and may be flourishing a free foot and a fellow to it | Cor. There is not a society girl who reads these lines who can not call to mind an instance in her own circle of acquaintance where the canduct of a fellow female of her coterie-innocent enough in itself-has not been stigmatized by persons of her own age and sex as "ontrageons," simply because she has had the misfortune to be "engaged."

Even a wife is more free from espionage than an engaged girl. The wife, at all events, has the fact to fall back upon that she has a husband. WE understand from some of our cilizens that the new cemetery company has doubled its rate for lots, and that it asks as much, if not more, than at Spring Grove cemetery, Cincinnati. Lots twentyfive feet square cost from $162.50 to $325. GThis seems to be an enormous price, as the owners have to keep up their lots after purchasing. These prices will be apt to encourage the project for a cemetery on a large scale, to be located near the city for the use of the county and city. Some of our citizens have long contemplated such a move, as it will not be many years before the present one is filled, and if our city continues to develop it will speedily encroach upon and surround our present little city of the dead. A few well-located lots can yet be had in the old cametry grounds, at moderate rates, and persons who want lots can be accommodated if application be made

The County Board of Supervisors, that has been in session this week, closed its the value of taxable property reported leaving a net increase of $180,025.

Mr. Jacob Mower, of Lewis county, who is nearly eight-two years of age, was in Maysville, on Thursday, and furnished the Bulletin some interesting facts concerning the old market building and the whisky that was found in one of the piers when it was torn down several weeks ago. He said to a representative of the Bul-

"I was a brick mason and worked on the market house, I think in 1829. The brick and sand were furnished by Thomas G. Richardson, and I did the work. I was engaged on it nine days and received part of the time $1.50 a day and for the bulance $2 a day. I have seen the bottle of whisky taken out of the pier and recognized it as the one I put there in 1829. Charles Duncan got it from John Sumrall who kept a wholesale grocery store in the building on Market street, now occupied by Mr. Paul Hæflich. It was full up to the neck and was senled with bees-wax as was the custom in that dny. It was pure whisky of the best quality and was at least two years old. Nobody was present when I put it in the genuiness of the market house whisky, about which so much has been said.

A. HONAN, Market streett.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 10 .- The Western Export Association, composed of the whisky dealers of the Mississippi Valley. met in this city yesterday with about fifty distilleries represented. The object of the conference was to determine upon the continuance of the pool regulating the production of the firms represented and to consider the question of an immediate reduction in production. A committee was appointed and reported favoring the resolution, which was adopted as the sense of the meeting.

"Resolved, That all distillers who can do so, shall at once reduce their capacity, so far as possible until June 1, and that after that date it shall be obligatory on the members of the association to reduce production to 20 per cent, of their capacity."

The distillers are now runaing only 40 per cent. of their espacity, and by the terms of the resolution will all hold, will run only 30,000 bushels per day after June 1. The action of the convention was a necessity in the light of the state of the whisky business. The whisky new in bond exceeds by more than a million gallons, all future demands in sight and the distilleries are all the time paculacing heavily, caused, as Secretary Stevens explained, by the baras of the distillers being full of entile to be fed. After June these cattle will be thrown on the market. and a reduction at the distilleries may then be accomplished. Mr. Stevens said that during the next year Kentucky alone must take 14,000,000 gallons of whisky out of bond, 7,000,000 more than was ever takea in any former year, and many millions more than can be conveniently exported to Bermuda or other points and returned to bond.

The Florida Ship Canal.

WASHINGTON, May 10 .- The Florida Ship Canal Company has effected an organization. It is announced that $26,000,000 has been subscribed to the capital stock of the company. General Stone will place a corps of engineer in the field without delay, and the work is expected to be under contract by the 1st of September. It is estimated that the canal will cost $30,000,000 and will be completed in three years. The proposed route will leave St. Johns river, about twenty miles above Jacksonville, and thence in a direct line as nearly as possible to the Suwanee river, on the Gulf of Mexico, making a tidewater canal less than 100 miles in length, and deep enough to float the largest ocean steamer from ocean to gult.

AYER'S Hair Vigor

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cores scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ludles' Hair Dressing, the Vigon is unequalled; It contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, ngreeable, and lasting perfume.

Mr. C. P. Buichen writes from Kirby, O., July 2, 1882: "I ast fall my ludr commenced failing ont, and h., don't time I become nearly bald. I used pairt of a bottle of Aven's Hair Vidon, which stopped the failing of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely baid."

J. W. Howen, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Enquirer, says: "Aver's llair Vigon is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The Vigon is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever within my knowledge has the preparation ever

MR. ANGU'S FAIRAMEN, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mags., Feb. 6, 1880: "Ever since my hair began to give silvery evidence of the change which fleeting time procureth, I have used AVER'S HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, orators, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

Mus. O. A. Picescott, writing from 18 Elm St., Charlestown, Mass., April 14, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using Aykr's HAIR VIGOR the falling staqued and a new growth commenced, and in alout a mouth my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly used but one bottle of the Vigor, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of Aven's Hain Vigor. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its value. PREPARED DY
